

We do not currently have a Vet or 24 Hr. care on island, so for after hours emergencies you are pretty much on your own. I recommend discussing this with your vet BEFORE you come. He or she MIGHT be willing to consider equipping you with an injectable sedative to alleviate suffering before the Humane society opens. See <https://saipanhumanesociety.org/emergency>